What is the NZ ORCID Hub?

- The New Zealand ORCID Hub is a free tool that allows all Consortium members to productively engage with ORCID regardless of technical resources.
- The Hub saves researchers' time, as they don't have to update their ORCID record themselves
- Recognised as an ORCID certified service provider
- Allows login via Tuakiri or via ORCID
- Analytics and insights are also provided by the Hub

- Peer Reviews
- Researcher Properties
- Researcher Other IDs
- Research Resources

The screenshot shows the 'Edit' page for an ORCID record in the NZ ORCID Hub. The top navigation bar includes links for Home, About, FAQ, Your ORCID, Your People, Tasks, Settings, and Hub Admin. Below this, there are tabs for List and Edit. The main content area has a horizontal menu with tabs for Affiliations, Fundings, Peer Reviews, Works, Urls, and Other Names. The 'Affiliations' tab is selected, and its dropdown menu is open, displaying a list of categories: Employment, Education, Distinction, Membership, Service, Qualification, and Invited Position. To the right of the dropdown, there are input fields for Name (Tiffany Oulavallickal), Email Address (tiffany.oulavallickal@royalsociety.org.nz), PPN, ORCID iD (0000-0002-1438-0476), and User's ORCID iD. At the bottom of the form, there are three buttons: Save, Save and Continue Editing, and Cancel.
